

“St. John Eudes recommended this prayer for the conversion of sinners and advised his spiritual children to say it at the bedside of the sick. The Blessed Virgin promised him that ‘all who say it with devotion, or at least good will, if they are in the state of grace, receive an increase of Divine love in their hearts at each of the salutations or benedictions contained in it; if they are in mortal sin, She will knock at the door of their hearts with Her own sweet virginal hand to urge them to open it to grace.’ And She added that when persons are deep in sin and difficult to convert, it would be well to encourage them to say this salutation, or at least to consent having it said for them.” (Admirable Heart of Mary by St. John Eudes page 329)

Père Paul De Moll: (Belgium) O.S.B.

1824-1896

The holy Benedictine, Père Paul De Moll, was born in 1824. His life was spent in great sanctity, in extraordinary virtue, and in the working of wonders. Early in his religious life, being at the point of death, Our Lord with Our Lady, St. Joseph and St. Benedict, appeared to him and said, “Be healed! I will grant all that you ask of Me for others.” He died in the Abbey of Termonde in 1896, and three years later his body was found incorrupt. His cause is now in Rome.

At each recitation of this prayer so pleasing to Mary, offer to Her through the hands of Père Paul, your country, begging Her blessing upon it and Her intercession for its conversion. It is requested that all undertake to widely spread and make known this Salutation to the Blessed Virgin Mary!
