The Third Secret of Fatima concerns “dangers threatening the faith and the life of the Christian and therefore (the life) of the world.”

...Cardinal Ratzinger, 1984

July 16, 2015
Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Dear Friend of Our Lady,

This coming October there will be another Synod in Rome, Italy with an agenda that is focusing on changing Catholic teaching.

Like the agenda of the Synod in October 2014, the orientation is focused on the family, not in accord with Catholic teaching but seemingly more in line with the new world order agenda, that is, an attack on the family.

This path leading souls away from the Catholic Faith is part of the punishment for not heeding the requests of Our Lady of Fatima. I refer you to the volunteer letter of June 2015 which discusses the agenda of this October's Synod.

You already know Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima is the solution for both the crisis within the Church and the subsequent moral decline in the world.

She told us that only She can help us. This is by Divine Decree for nothing happens without God's permission and the most humble and obedient of all human creatures is the Blessed Virgin.

Last month we reminded our apostolate volunteers of the importance of spreading the Message of Fatima in an effort to get more Catholics to do what Our Lady asked of every human being. Spreading Her Message is of prime importance and this work must never stop.

In the Fatima Message, Catholics are reminded of the perennial teachings of the Faith - reverence for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and the Holy Eucharist, the need for Confession, penance, sacrifice and reparation, modesty in dress - all teachings that the Queen of Heaven warned in 1917 that Catholics were already losing their sense of the importance of, and certainly She knew would grow to scandalous proportions in our time.

In the Fatima Message Catholics are also reminded of the punishment for failing to follow the perennial teachings of the Faith, for failing to lead Catholic lives and the punishment for sin - war, famine, persecutions - things that were happening in the world at the time of Our Lady's apparitions at Fatima with a warning that it will get much worse if Her requests are not heeded.

In the coming months leading up to the Synod, you will likely hear some of what is being proposed from sources other than Our Lady's Apostolate. Unfortunately, some of those sources may be priests, fellow parishioners, family members, friends, etc. who may be discussing the proposed attacks on our Catholic Faith as if they were positive changes to be made.

In the battle for the salvation of souls, while spreading the Fatima Message, we must also defend the rights of Christ and His Church when it is under attack. Especially when the attacks are coming from within the Church!

It is unfortunate but many Catholics today do not know the True Faith. And even sadder, they don't know that they haven't been taught much of the true Catholic Faith. That is why enemies within the Church are able to propose an agenda of changing basic Catholic teaching, knowing that the lack of knowledge of the true Faith will permit the enemies to lead souls away from God without a fight.

For those who understand and have knowledge of the True Faith, we must fight not only the enemies outside the Church but also those inside, and in doing so we must help the ignorant to understand the importance of recognizing and not following error.

Enclosed with this letter are two new leaflets created specifically to fight against an agenda that is aimed at Catholic teaching regarding the family.

They are intended to help you and me and other Catholics in this battle and also help to explain to those who are being misled why they cannot follow such error.

The smaller of the two leaflets (LF318) advises of Cardinal Ratzinger's (future Pope Benedict XVI) warning in 1984, quoted at the top of page one of this letter about the Third Secret of Fatima concerning the "dangers threatening the Faith" and that various Cardinals and bishops are now sounding the alarm regarding these dangers to the Faith being presented in the upcoming Synod.

The second leaflet (LF317) is in a catechism-style question and answer format, addressing why the proposed changes to be discussed in the Synod pertaining to the Sacrament of Matrimony are outside of Catholic teaching and demonstrating the battle those proposals are causing within the Church hierarchy.

This leaflet does a terrific job of explaining why the Church cannot make the changes being proposed and if straying churchmen were to give the impression that the changes were made, why Catholics cannot follow such heretical ideas.

The leaflet also addresses the duty of Catholics to defend the Faith. It is a terrific leaflet which should help Catholics engaging in this battle for the rights of Christ the King and His Church.

The Enemy Within,
The Blue Turncoats or World Apostolate of Collaboracionists

Everyone knows what a turncoat is: a traitor, one who switches to an opposing side - the side of the enemy. It is often used to describe soldiers who become deserters often out of fear or cowardice.

A collaboracionist is one who cooperates with or willingly assists an enemy. It usually refers to an enemy of one's country but in this instance refers to assisting the enemies not only of our country, but the enemies of Our Lady (specifically of Our Lady of Fatima), Our Lord and His One True Church.

At least 10 years ago I received a phone call from someone who asked the question, "Whatever happened to The Blue Army"?

For those of you who don't know what The Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima was - it was a Catholic organization that promoted the Message of Our Lady of Fatima, just as its name suggests.

My answer to the caller's question was: they still exist, they still have offices, they just seem to be silent. Perhaps dormant or in hiding would have been a better description.

I suggested the possibility that because they had been spreading false information regarding the Consecration of Russia for many years, they invited the displeasure of Heaven.

The outcome of this displeasure was the marginalization, or the slow fading away, of the organization.

It is because of their traitorous turnaround regarding the Consecration of Russia - falsely stating that the Consecration was done despite all evidence to the contrary - that I refer to them as The Blue Turncoats.

I am speaking strictly about the top leadership of The Blue Army, not the individual devotees of Our Lady who still do their best to spread devotion to Her but have been misled by their leadership.

The leaders of the organization stunted its growth by falsity, and the organization having become an enemy of Our Lady of Fatima and Her Message - while basically still retaining a title and some property - seemed to shrivel up.

The Blue Army seemingly having faded away, has attempted once again to make a comeback, in a fashion similar to a department store chain which declares bankruptcy and then re-emerges under another name while still selling the same stale and non-appealing merchandise, yet hoping for better results.

This new name by which they now sell their old merchandise is called The World Apostolate of Fatima (WAF).

For information regarding the historical defection of The Blue Army I refer you to:

1. "The Consecration Done versus the Consecration NOT Done" by Father Gruner - a subheading of an article published in Issue 100 of The Fatima Crusader (Fall 2011) beginning on page 14.
2. "The Plot to Silence Our Lady" - Parts 1 and 2 by Father Paul Leonard Kramer and published in Issue 20 of The Fatima Crusader (June - July 1986).
3. "Update on the Plot to Silence Our Lady" by Father Paul Kramer published in Issue 63 of The Fatima Crusader (Spring 2000).

The Fatima Center has received many phone calls and other correspondence in the past regarding the disinformation spread by The Blue Army regarding the Consecration of Russia.

These same type of calls continue to this day with the caller asking questions because they are confused since hearing about an organization called World Apostolate of Fatima that promotes the falsehood that the Consecration of Russia has been done. Often the caller is surprised when told that WAF is The Blue Army.

How insulting to the Mother of God to look at the world at ANY TIME since She appeared with Her Message in 1917 and say that the world has had peace, that the Consecration of Russia has been done and Our Lady's Immaculate Heart has triumphed! The facts speak for themselves.

These people who are instrumental in misleading millions are cowards because they are afraid to stand up for the truth knowing how unpopular they may become for doing so. They are afraid of being attacked as Father Gruner was - especially of having their reputation attacked as his was (and still is).

One volunteer called recently and told me that after daily Mass he leads the Rosary and the intention for the Rosary is for the Consecration of Russia. About two weeks ago his parish priest told him to stop stating that the intention is for the Consecration of Russia. The reason the priest gave for the outrageous order: "I don't want to get in trouble".

Since Father Gruner's death, attacks against Our Lady's Apostolate and attacks on Father's reputation continue and almost seem to be increasing. The attacks seem to be coming from all different groups.

One of the most recent attacks comes from The World Apostolate of Fatima (The Blue Army). In their June 2015 newsletter to some members in India, Father Gruner's death is mentioned.

In the first paragraph the author of the article, Professor Americo, International WAF President, mentions prayers for the repose of the soul of Father Gruner and then utilizes the modernist technique of verbiage that results in readers interpreting what is written in opposing or conflicting ways.

Professor Americo then wrote the following in the second and third paragraphs:

"Now, we must also pray that the deviation from the authentic Message of Fatima [N.B.: these words were bolded in the article] that Fr. Gruner represented when living on this earth, will not continue, that it will fade away soon with the death of its leader. That there will be no continuation or that the continuation will not be successful as people should know that truth on the Fatima Message is harmony and obedience with the Universal Church.

"The WAF International should continue working hard to spread the authentic Message of Fatima everywhere, with the resources we have. I convoke every member of the Board and every member of the WAF International to have at least one hour of Adoration to the Blessed Sacrament during the month of May (sic) praying for the triumph of good over evil, for it is through this supernatural activity, the prayer of Adoration, that the great evils of our time will be overcome."

The article gratuitously states that Father Gruner "represented" a "deviation from the authentic message of Fatima", but does not even hint at what that alleged "deviation" might be; And suggests by way of innuendo that Father Gruner's unspecified alleged "deviation" was not in "obedience with the universal Church".

This accusation is both slanderously and (objectively speaking) sacrilegiously hurled at Father Gruner (sacrilegious because it is a sin of sacrilege to defame a priest with false accusations) but no attempt is made to substantiate it, or even state specifically in what the alleged deviation consists.

One can certainly understand why Heaven withdrew its support of, and marginalized The Blue Turncoats years ago. But like the mosquito which refuses to stop trying to draw blood from its targeted victim, the devil and his henchman organization, The Blue Turncoats / World Apostolate of Collaborationists (WAC), will try again for a while to promote its lies and mislead millions.

And Heaven will permit this evil for a time in order to allow those promoting the true Fatima Message to offer sacrifices for sinners and gain graces for the salvation of souls.

Then once again, Heaven will withdraw its tolerance and The Blue Turncoats / WAC will fade away.

We must, as Catholics, pray for their conversion and eternal salvation, and so we shall.

Please keep Our Lady's True Apostolate - the one, by the Grace of God, promoting the full Fatima Message - in your prayers. Your prayers and sacrifices are necessary if we are to continue together in this work of Our Lady of Fatima. Likewise, we continue to pray for you that you also continue to do this work.

And of course, please continue to unite your prayers with ours in praying for the consecration and conversion of Russia to Our Lady's Immaculate Heart.

In the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts,

Joanna Swords
